Big Price for a Broken Heart.

Not long since a Danville, Ill., jury ordered the male defendant in a breach of promise case to pay the decidedly competent sum of $51,333,33 to the afflicted fairone. This was thought to be the largest amount ever awarded by a jury in a similar action. Though it is a pretty high estimate of blighted affection, there is another etimate which is not in dollars and cents exactly as high, yet in general consideration of excellence reaches as lofty an altitude. That is the estimate of the people in their general vertice as to the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach filters as a remedy for constipation. The action of this gentle, but effective, laxative is never adompanied by the griping and other abdodinal disturbance which precedes or accompany the bance which precedes or accompany for and preventive of malarial, rheumatic and kidney complaints, a never failing means of invigorating the stomach and nervous system, and a promoter of appetite and sleep. Fersistence in its use is strongly advisable.

HITS HERE AND THERE. (By Bat N. Ball.)

Tell me not in mournful numbers
Things are not what they seem;
Tell me rather: What's the prospect
For a pennant winning team?

Allentown, the baby member of the Allentown, the baby member of the Atlantic League, is promising big things in the way of attendance at the games. I should think that their promises might easily be fulfilled, as that city has a population of over 100,000 to draw from, the grounds being fifteen minutes ride from Allentown or the neighboring city of Bethlehem.

minutes ride from Allentown or the neighboring city of Bethlehem.

One of the local baseball scribes says that Norfolk is unique in baseball history, because the local street railway people do not seem disposed to do us much as is expected of them in the way of assisting the local management. While I agree that Norfolk is unique I differ as to the particular uniquity, if I may coin a word, of the situation under discussion.

No precedent can be offered here insofar as it affects the attitude of the street railway people. I have it, upon good authority, that they are disposed to deal generously with the management of the Norfolk club. By this I mean generously as they see it. Were Norfolk a city in which baseball was to be introduced for the first time it would be to the interest of the street railway people to own the franchise, or falling in that, to offer great inducements for the location of a club in this city. As it stands at present, the franchise is a piece of property already owned here. Norfolk is a member of the Atlantic League and the playing of baseball here a foregone and positive conclusion. Consequently the street railway people are in a position to suy, "We are disposed to help you to a reasonable extent and will do so, but you must be moderate in your demands. We can get along without you, but you cannot get along without us, so sing small."

President Williams, the new head of the street railway, owns the Rich-

President Williams, the new head of the street railway, owns the Richmond franchise and recognizes the value of the game to his interest. It may, therefore, he presumed that he will do all he consistently can to help the game here. The Lysch property has been spoken of and contemplated for the new grounds, but if the assistance of the street railway people is really looked for it would be poor policy to locate there, for the reason that a great many of the patrons of the game would walk there when, if the grounds were located in the suburbs, they would ride. As this would mean dollars to the railway it does not take much reasoning to adduce the President Williams, the new head of mean dollars to the railway it does not take much reasoning to adduce the inference that a park beyond the city limits would induce them to be more liberal; in fact, I am led to believe they would furnish the park and appurtenances. A few weeks more will, however, solve the question as to locality.

"Baby" Elberfeld will have to do some tall preliminary work for the Phillies during spring practice to carve a place for himself as a permanent fixture at third bag.

The removal of the big bill board on the Dusch property may possibly be taken as good evidence that that spot has been selected for the new ball grounds grounds.

Phil. Vetter will don the pad and mask for the Springfield (Ohio) Club the coming season.

Ed. Behan, once with Portsmouth as an outfielder and later with Lynchburg, is pining in Chicago for a contract with some club.

Tim Hurst has arrived in St. Louis to take charge of "Der Prowns," while Von der Ahe languishes in the hands of the law in Pittsburg.

First Baseman Rothfuss, who was sold to Pittsburg last season by Deacon Ellis, has been relegated again to a minor league. Kansas City bought him from Pittsburg.

The street car people of Omaha are as unique as the Norfolk people in the great lack of interest they exhibit in the probable location of a team in that city, and are not enthusing as much as the franchise owners would like

Mr. John Birmingham has bought out Billie Barnie's interest in the Hart-ford Club and will have the controlling power. He will manage the team and power. He will manage the team and Paul Radford will be captain and second baseman.

"Lefty" Marr will again be seen with Hartford this year. Left field, short-step and third base will be the only points at which new faces will be seen with that club.

Chauncey Stuart will be the manager of the Bradford (Pa.) club this year.

Stration, Heydon, McIntyre, Garvin, Sprait and Slater will be seen here again this year with Reading. Phil. Geler having been sold to St. Paul by Philadelphia, will play in the outfield for that club this season.

The Baltimore club is scheduled for exhibition games with Richmond on April 1, 2 and 4 and will play the Nor-folk club here on April 5.

Pitcher Brunner, once of Portsmouth, will play with Indianapolis this year.

"King" Kelley is still on The hunt for a contract. "Frothy George" is not so worse and did good work for us

Harry Colliflower has signed with Atlanta, but the chances for a club in that city the coming season at the present writing ore not very bright. Ted Sullivan is certainly very verious. He is credited by three dif-ferent papers to be in three different parts of the country at the same time.
